DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On January 29, 2021, Ramon Pinon filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine that was administered on October 19 2020. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 30, 2023, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On March 29, 2023, Respondent filed a combined Rule 4 report/proffer on award of compensation (“Rule 4/Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $50,643.32 (comprised of $50,000.00 for pain and suffering and $643.32 for unreimbursed expenses.) Rule 4/Proffer at 6-7. In the Rule 4/Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Rule 4/Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the Rule 4/Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $50,643.32 (comprised of $50,000.00 for pain and suffering and $643.32 for unreimbursed expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
